Seasons That Have Passed

Nature's way of expressing time is through the seasons. This year's Reflections has also captured and expressed C.H.S. through the seasons.

Time took us to Fall quicker than our minds were ready, but we soon settled down to the 3's, new friends, and fresh activities.

Winter proved to be a season of enthusiasm for both the students and faculty in their various activities. Winter soon passed to let another one take its place.

Our winter had melted away into Spring. Everyone fell into busy schedules but as Spring came to an end so did school, leaving some behind to enter other seasons at C.H.S., and sending others into a new life ahead.

We are left with only memories but from our own Reflections we are left with the seasons that have passed.

A New Year . . . A New Beginning . . .

The students of Coconino High School began to close their summer in the middle of August. The first to be drawn into school for registration were the Senior's on August 10. Following close behind were the Juniors and the Sophomores in the following next two days. We registered a record amount of 332 seniors, 331 juniors and 381 sophomores.

In our opening assembly we were welcomed by Mr. Petersen, Mr. Wolfe and Mr. Boehle. Mr. Haines informed the Student Body about Mark Lescoe Day which would be held October 1. The Student Body was then introduced to the Student Body Officers, Class Presidents, Cheerleaders and the Pom-pon girls.

The finale of the first week was the Get Acquainted Dance. It was held August 27 and the band was Impulse. It was quite hot in the cafeteria, but most of the people that came, danced.

All three events of the first week were successful--which was a great way to start off the new school year!

Seniors Place Class of 79' in Bondage

"It was alright, it was fun," Dawn Cummings said after being ask about sophomore initiation this year. The sophomore greeting this year from the seniors was different than last year's. The theme was Slaves, and each senior was able to purchase 2 sophomores for 25¢. The senior owners were able to command them around, and dress them up for Thursday and Friday September 9th and 10th. Outside games were planned for the lunch-hour on both days; rainy-weather canceled these activities. Mr. Petersen's comment was, "I thought it wasn't as well organized as it could have been," and, "Those sophomores who did participate did it in the right spirit, and had alot of fun."

Senior Tammy Garver agreed with Mr. Petersen and added, "Those sophomores who did participate should be congratulated. I think they did great!"

1. Tom readys for clash with Page defender.
2. Willard and Tris turn the corner against Snowflake.
3. Marty sets to pierce the defense.
4. Coaches: Mauger, Mickelson, Epperson and Blair.
5. A little halftime readjustment by Coach Epperson.
6. Ronny with the aid of Tris cuts upfield against Kingman.

Panthers Embarrass

Flagstaff 38-15

In the city championship, the Eagles scored first on a fluke play and led 7-0 at halftime. But in the second half the Panthers decided to unload Reaves and Company for 38 pts. In the eight years of cross-town rivalry, never has there been such a convincing victory. This most assuredly displayed the pride of C.H.S.

The Senior Class of '77 ended with a total record of 19-7-2 in their High School career.

Visions for State Title Vanish at the Divisional Tournament

Bringing their season to a close, the Coconino Girls Volleyball team faced a disappointing loss at the Divisional Tournament in Winslow. The Pink Panthers lost to Holbrook which put them out of the running for a state title. Girl's Volleyball coach, Mr. Wertz, felt that Coconino was well represented by our volleyball team. They looked better than they ever have, they worked hard together, and they had better control of the ball. They really were using their heads in a game. Mr. Wertz said the girls really thought volleyball, and therefore they functioned better as a team. The varsity team came up with a good season record of 11 wins and 6 loses, while the junior varsity team had a record of 2 wins and 13 loses. Mr. Wertz and the volleyball team felt that Miss Nink, Mrs. Manley and the cheerleaders have been a major factor in the teams success.

This fall, over 48 men and women put in miles on our outstanding Cross-country teams. The girls finished the regular season with a perfect record of 5 & 0, while the boys finished 3 & 2. The boys placed 3rd & 5th in the divisional and state meets respectively, while the girls took runner up (2nd) both times.

"Most valuable" runners this year were Lisa Feyereisen and Carl Peterson. Lisa placed 1st in state, while Carl was 3rd for the boys.

All things in life are not easy, as a young man experienced last summer. Mark Lescoe was involved in a tragic accident leaving him paralyzed from the waist down. This had left a great impact on the whole community of Flagstaff, drawing them all together to reach a common goal.

On October 1, Mark Lescoe Day was created, raising a sum of 5,000 dollars to help Mark with his future plans. The mayor proclaimed this day as the Mark Lescoe Sports Day. The day became a community project. Events included several athletic matches against Kingman. A faculty lap-a-thon, and a fantastic western barbeque were also featured.

As the day came to a close and the sky had finally cleared up after a day of drizzling rain, Coconino was left victorious in all sports activities. Everyone left in good spirits and with a great feeling inside from putting out the effort to make this day a success. Mr. Fox's impression of the day reflected the feeling of many who attended when he said, "It renews faith in the human race to see everyone support a young man as they have."

College Reps Visit C.H.S.

Twenty-five administrators from eleven colleges and universities throughout the state of Arizona visited the seniors of Coconino High School. They told seniors about the tuition, scholarships, financial aid, and other information about the schools they represented. Each student went to three sessions, 20 minutes long. Some of the schools were Yavapai College, Grand Canyon College, and Mesa Community College. Others included were Arizona, and Northern Arizona University. Our student body president Doug Hatch, senior class president David Caylor, and senior class senator Peter Wong, thought the day was very beneficial to the senior class.

"A DRIFT IN NEW YORK"

"E gads you cur! Get your hands off me!" was one of the lines in Conino's melodrama play, "Adrift in New York." The play was presented on the 14th and 15th of October. It involved the audience by having them boo and hiss at the villain and signing along. With this, the Drama Club made the play even more exciting. The Villian, played by Lance Isacc, fought for the fair Karen Prosser's hand in marriage with Jody Smith. Everyone thought that the play was a great success!

Gooly Monsters and patched up jeans started off Spirit Week for Oct. 18-22. Spirit Week was a week of many various activities going on during the day. Monday was dress-up day and crazy glasses day, also the North Central Evaluating team arrived. Tuesday was monster day and a sock-hop at lunch. On Wednesday most everybody dressed-up as Hillbillies. There was also only a half a day of school because North Central gave their evaluation. Thursday was Junk day and in the evening there was a bon fire pep assembly. Then came Friday, the day everybody had been waiting for. It started quite calm in the morning, but later on in the afternoon everyone was hurrying to get ready for the evening's events. The day and the week ended with a Homecoming dance.

Twirlers and Flag Girls Add Flash to Performances

The first performance of the Coconino High School Marching Band was a combination of quality music, a glowing performance by the twirlers and an impressive performance by the flag girls, an added attraction to pregame and halftime shows. The performances by the flag girls and twirlers was not confined to a CHS audience. They accompanied the band on a trip to the state fair in October and later during the football season to the game against Snowflake. The flag girls and twirlers were led to successful performances by their sponsor, Ms. Stuart.

A new combination of a Coconino and Flagstaff orchestra was made as a result of rather small groups at each school. Under the direction of Mr. Nebel, the orchestra presented a wide and entertaining variety of music in a performance November 15.

1. Twirlers: Lorraine Sedillo, Betty Strivings.
2. Orchestra: (Left to Right) Diane Cancino, Rex Stephans, Danielle Hoelzel, Sidney Williams, Phillip Szoellos, Margaret Langley, Carl Peterson, Dana Squire, David Stephans, Brian Crawford, Kerry Meeks.
3. Twirlers and Flag Girls sponsor, Ms. Stuart.
4. Flag girls: Terry Montieth, Rosalie Montoya, Gina Williams, Valerie Gonzales.
5. Brian Crawford and Kerry Meeks.

Science and Math Offer New Faces and Places

New figures were added to Coconino High's Math department, Ms. Johnson, Ms. Hobby and Coach Wertz.

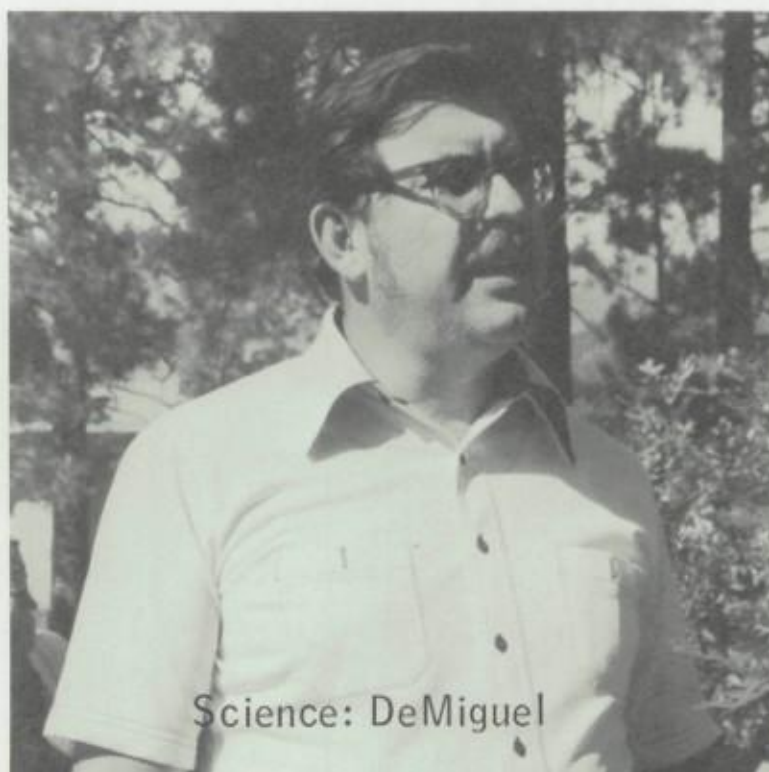

Ms. Johnson came from Page to teach at C.H.S. She teaches social studies as well as math. Ms. Johnson attended U. of A., A.S.U. and N.A.U.

Ms. Hobby has spent the last three years teaching math and one year of science on the junior high level in Tucson. She also attended U. of A.

Mr. Wertz spent last year teaching at Flag High. He attended N.A.U. He was also our

Math: Epperson and Painter

Science: DeMiguel

Science: Friend

girls' volleyball coach and coached the J.V. baseball team.

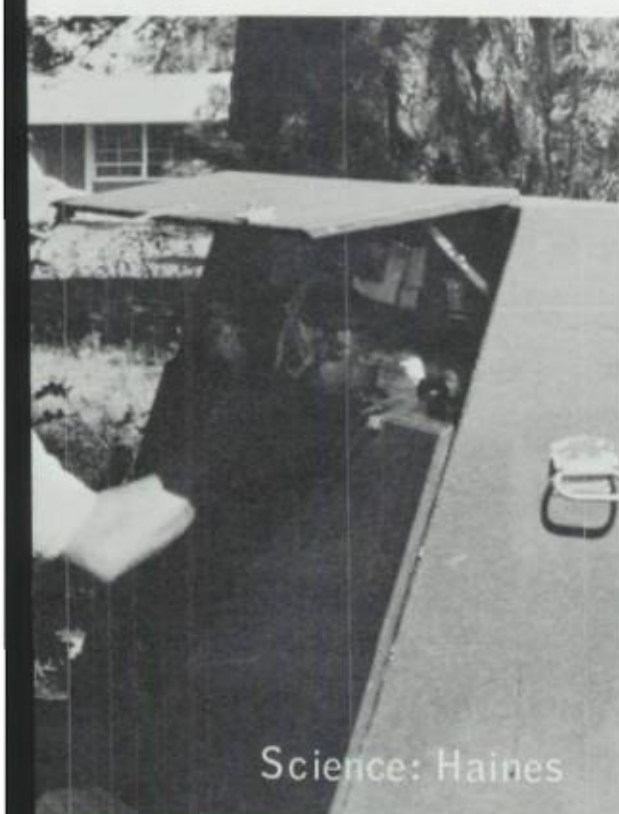

The three new math teachers joined old timers Coach Painter and Coach Epperson. Coach Epperson taught a new class, Statistics and Probability, while Coach Painter taught Advanced Placement Calculus.

The Science department has no new faces, but we still have our fine science teachers, Coach Haines, Mr. Perpich, Mr. DeMiguel, and Mr. Friend.

This year's science classes have taken many field trips. Biology I went on an overnight camping trip. Biology II went to Camp Verde and on the Peaks. Earth science classes went to Oak Creek, Red Mountain to observe the lava tube, and Grand Falls to study the damming of the Little Colorado.

Chemistry students went to N.A.U. along with the Physics students on engineering week.

Science: Haines

Math: Hobby, Johnson, Wertz

The Spirit Lies in

Varsity Cheerleaders

The Spirit of "77" really came alive this year with the help of the Varsity Cheerleaders. After much preparation and support from their sponsor Mrs. Maier and manager Suzie Roe, the girls were ready to cheer in the upcoming year. The cheerleaders enthusiasm and fun was doubled this year by the number of sisters on both Varsity and J.V. squads.

Spirit and enthusiasm burst from this years J.V. Cheerleading squad.

1. They showed their dedication by cheering in all kinds of wheather.
2. When 50's day rolled around they were more than ready for the assembly.
3. Monica Roberson had to keep the girls in line. All the girls enjoyed the year very much and give thanks to their sponsor Mrs. Maier.

Ski Team

The Ski Team this year was open to anyone interested in skiing and therefore drew over 30 members. Twice a week they worked out like a regular team with ski related exercises and later played soccer or football. On Fridays (when there was snow) the skiers were excused from afternoon classes to "hit the slopes"; where advanced skiers engaged in such activities as racing and jumping, and the beginners got the feel of their skis on the bunny slope. Over the course of the season they also cross-country skied and learned ski repair and waxing techniques. Due to an A.I.A. ruling the ski team was not allowed to compete.

8. Willard shoots from the charity stripe.

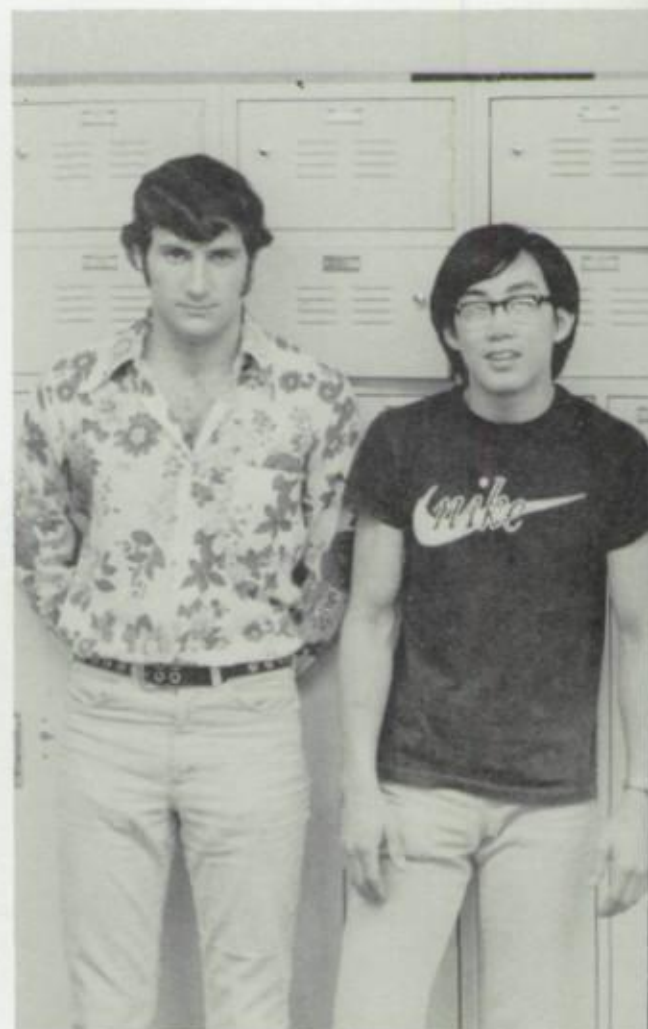

Long Season

The Panther Varsity finished up the season tied for third place in the conference at 5-5. Overall the team finished 11-12. Some of the highlights in the season were defeating Flagstaff High 54-49 in one overtime, and whipping Mingus 65-61 in two overtimes. The season came to a close after losing to Winslow in the first round of the AA North Divisionals.

J.V. Basketball

After dropping their first eight games of the season, the Boy's J.V. won four games in a row and went on to finish the season with a 7-12 record.

There were many fine performers on the team this year that should help boost next years varsity squad.

Alice in Wonderland

"Fantastic, crazy" and "hilarious" were some of the comments made about Drama's production of "Alice in Wonderland!" It was a play filled with quality acting unique for a high school. The lead role of Alice was played by Helen Lingerfelt.

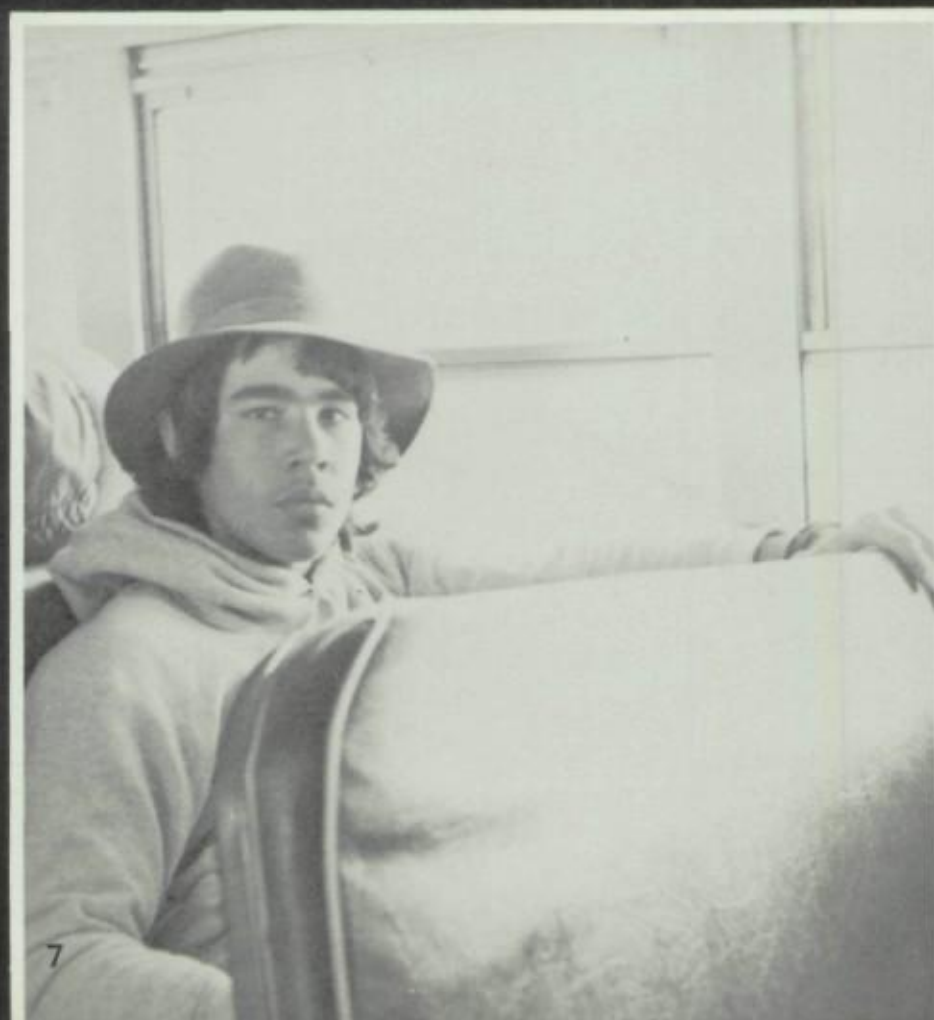

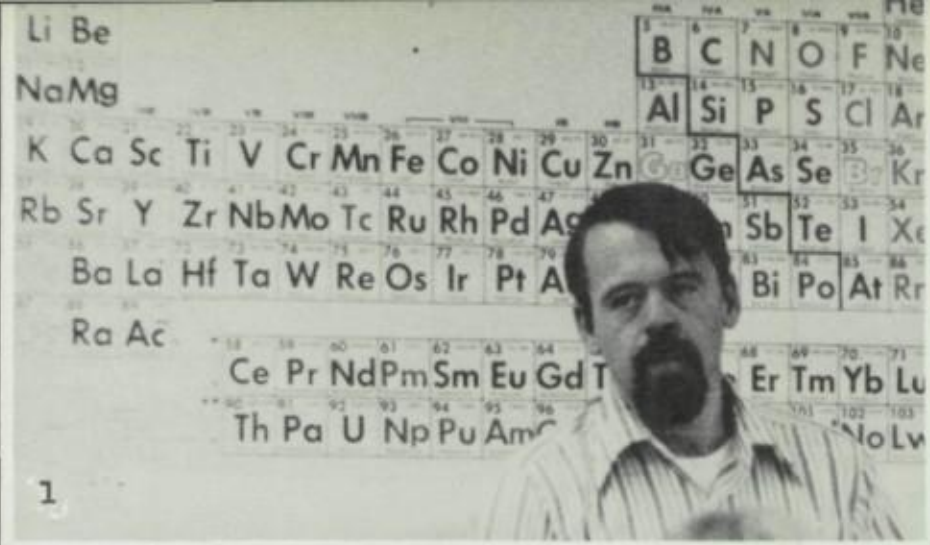

When asked how she felt the play turned out, Mrs. McMacken, the director commented, "They put in long hard hours to achieve their goal of a unified cast and crew and they fulfilled their purpose! Congratulations, folks. I'm proud of you!"

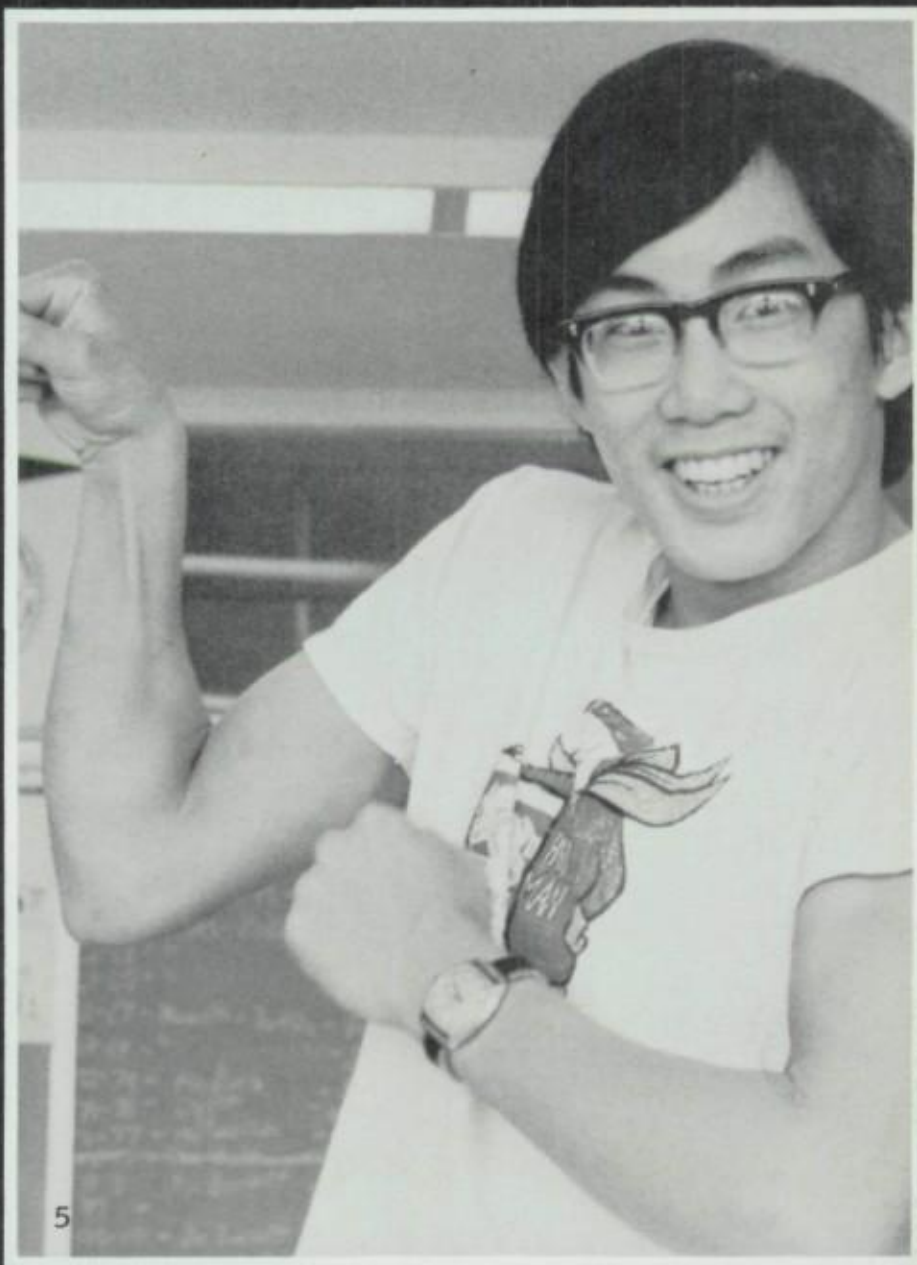

Another great one!

Varsity Club

Varsity club is a special club for those who strive and do well in sports. All members have a varsity letter which they can be very proud of. This club is a hard working one, and have quite a lot of money from selling popcorn at all the games and selling ice cream at lunch time. From the money they raised they purchased a rebound machine for both girls and boys basketball, also a spiking machine for the girls volleyball. They will continue to buy more equipment from the money they make to keep our school at its best. Mr. Epperson is the sponsor.

The spirit of the pep club is really tremendous and that spirit flows through Coconino to keep us winning. The Pep club sponsor is Mrs. Newell.

Imagination, skills, and thrift were emphasized in the Crafts, Art, and Home Economics classes.

In Home Economics (photo 1) Mrs. Holst, Mrs. Ainsworth and Mrs. McKee were our three head chefs. (photo 2) Mr. Barney was our crafts teacher. Mr. Barney is showing his skills in leather crafting. (photo 3) Mr. Wannie taught Power Mechanics. One can see the enthusiasm which he put toward the class. In the Welding field Mr. Glenn was our big flame. They did many projects like making fire-place tools. Mrs. Nask and Mrs. Hazelhurst handled the Art Department. Art is a big field like Crafts.

Finally you see Mr. Eaton in his new Vocational Carpentry class which just this year came to Coconino.

Coconino P.E. Faculty

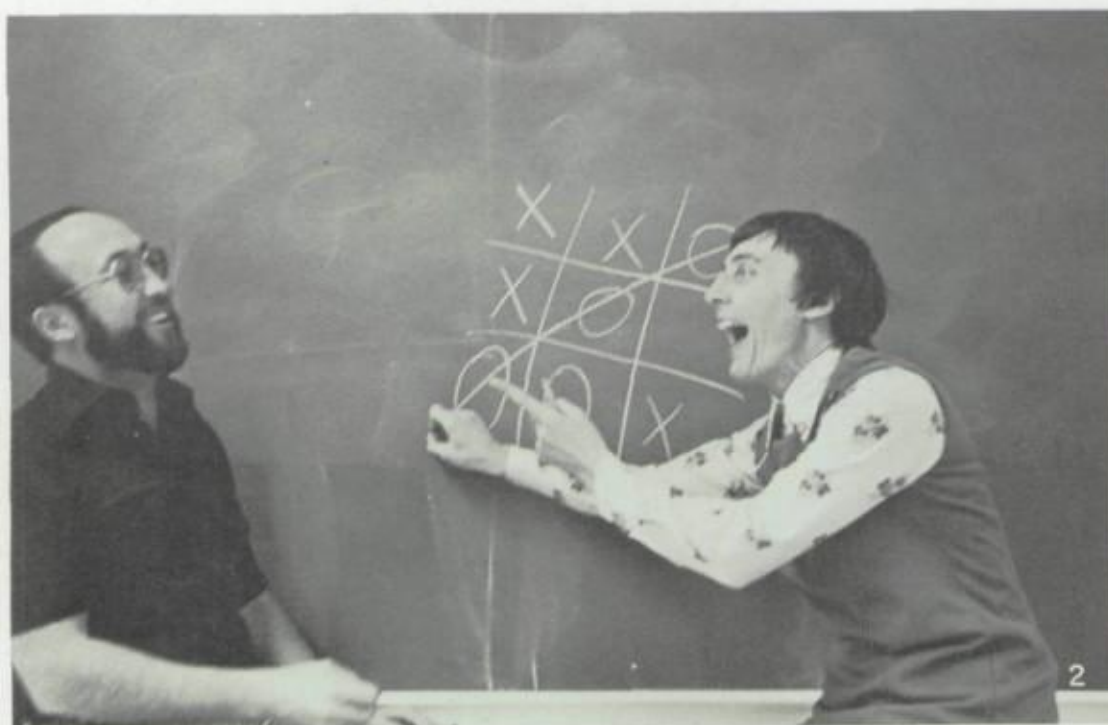

A hop, skip and a jump are all a part of being a physical education teacher at Coconino. Our p.e. teachers all worked hard this year getting the students in good shape.

This year was the second year for co-educational p.e. and was considered a success. Many students really enjoyed it. Some said, "It's fun and more interesting!" and "There's a lot more competition."

Our p.e. teachers are also involved in other things such as coaching basketball and a gymnastics team. These teachers help Coconino by being so involved.

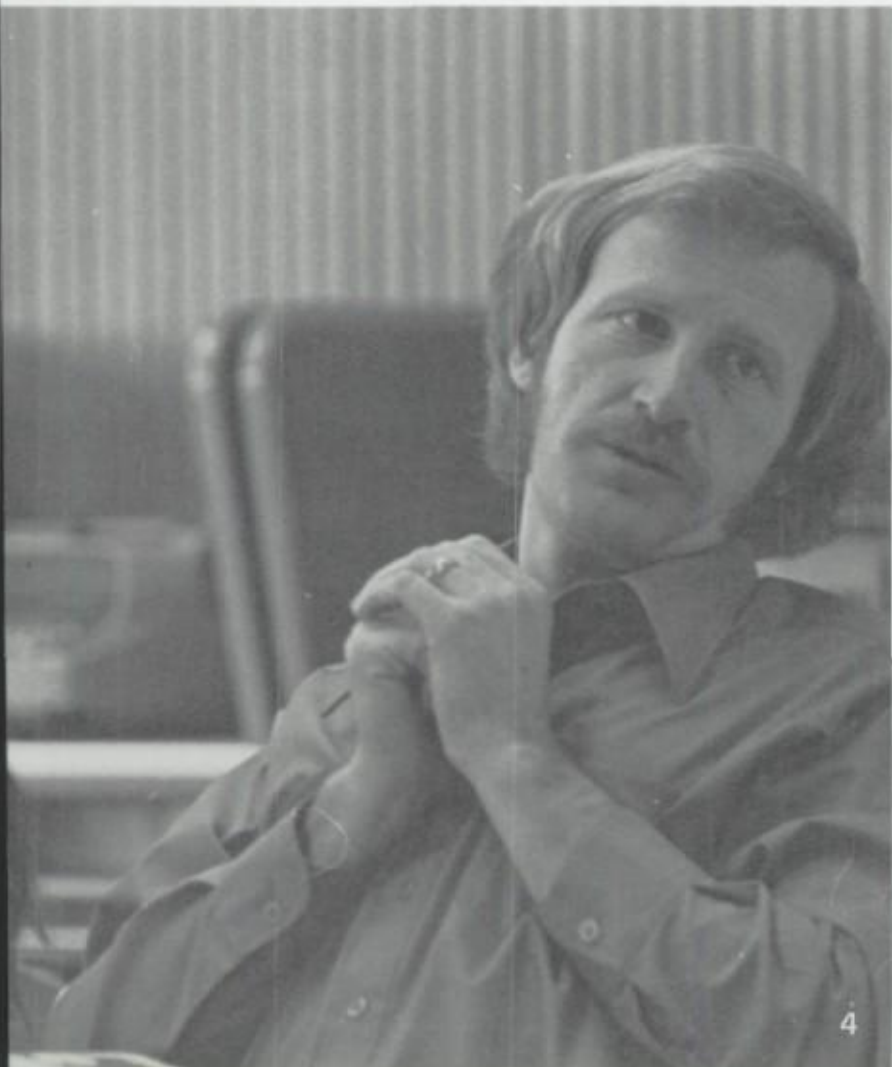

Apex Faculty

The APEX Department at Coconino offered a wide variety of courses. Students choose a new class every nine weeks. The courses offered ranged from Teens in Literature to Advanced Placement English.

1. Ms. Stuart's alter-ego.
2. Mrs. O'Dair displays the thrill of victory to Mr. Armenta.
3. Mr. Gill ponders over an ancient volume of forgotten lore.
4. An enthusiastic Jamie Gale reacts to one of Mr. Wells' favorite one-liners.
5. Mrs. Hendricks reflects her attitude toward paperwork.
6. Mrs. Wolfe stresses the determination teachers have to educate.
7. Mrs. Chavez rushes to meet an English deadline.

The Varsity Wrestling team took a 4th place last weekend in the Winslow tournament of 12 teams. This was one of their better showing this year according to Coach Dumas.

As far as dual meets this year, the team is five and three. Some of the outstanding members of the team are Sandy Jackson, at the 175 weight class. He is undefeated so far this year. Also, Dalon Rade, a Heavyweight, who has lost only two matches. Jihm Herrera, a 120 pounder, has also only lost two matches this year. Alex Tapia was undefeated until the Winslow tournament last weekend when he broke his ankle during a match. Alex was the 145 pounder.

Wrestling Divisionals will be held the 18-19 of February and State will be the 18-19. There is expected to be a number of wrestlers from Coconino in these tournaments.

This was a year of change for the East Side Story. After four years of being C.H.S. Press the name was changed to East Side Story. This was the first year the East Side Story came out in the Arizona Daily Sun. This way the community could also read about the activities going on at Coconino. Eight newspapers came out all through the year, giving us memories of the year 76-77. Members of the newspaper staff were, B. Churchman, S. Ross, S. Burnett, J. Copeland, J. Gale, P. Loomis, J. McDonald, J. Boston, J. Burnett, B. Dowell, M. Fusselman, R. Kurtz, J. Protiva, J. Andrews, C. Magana, A. Vandivort, Co-editors - K. Uhles, H. Lingerfelt, Advisor - Mr. Wells

The Girl's team is not expected to do as well next year since the seniors plus Lisa Feyereisen will be gone. That will leave only three veteran varsity players. There are many sophomores coming up, however, and the outlook could change.

Coconino musicians do well at regional fest

Students from Coconino's band, chorus and orchestra classes joined high school musicians from throughout Northwest Arizona for the 1977 regional solo/ensemble festival last Saturday at N.A.U.

Over 50 students from C.H.S. auditioned for spots in All-Regional performing groups, and of those 26 were selected.

The Panther Band placed 10 of its members in the All-Regional group. They were Andy Garcia on trumpet; Sheldon Parks and Mark Hardenbrook on the trombone; Alan Minner playing tuba; Jerry Wands, percussion; Jeanne Korn, alto clarinet; and Helen Lingerfelt, Lynn Newton, Paula Dodd and Wayne Hevelone on the clarinet.

"These festivals give the students a chance to get involved in the music and to work," said Bernard. "I think it's a good chance to see how they do in the district."

Coconino's choral department enjoyed one of its best years ever at the festival, with 18 singers chosen for the All-Regional group.

Karen Prosser, Sharon Burnett, Kim Uhles and Dawn Aldrich were selected to travel to Mesa Valley and 26 to join the regional group.

Chosen were Harold Adams, Clay Sanders and Rick Uhles. Alto: Pam Loomis and Tammy Smith. Picked as leaders were Jim Martens and John Voale.

"This is the most students we've placed in the regional choir in quite some time. We have twice as many this year as we had last year," said their director Russell Ashley after the festival. "This shows continued growth in our vocal program, and we are proud to be participating."

Three C.H.S. students placed in the Regional Orchestra. They were Williams and Carl Peterson. Milla Wilkes on the Cello.

In another festival, simultaneously at N.A.U., formed prepared solos and work for judges, who rated on a scale from "superior" to "satisfactory."

These rated "superior" gold medal from the Arizona Association. An "excellent" silver medal. More than awarded to Coconino students.

The Panther Gymnasts

Expressions of creativity and individually were reflected by members of the Panther gymnastics team when they competed in seven meets this spring. Their season opened with a meet against Flagstaff High. In their opening meet the girls performed compulsory routines, identical routines for each event, striving for perfection. In the optional meets which followed, the gymnasts portrayed their moods and personalities through the moves and music of their routines.

The Panther gymnasts Top Left to Right, Suzie Roe, Kathy Miller, Tammy Garver, Pam Loomis, Michelle Liebe, Jill Westman, Debbie Miller, Melody Miller, Wistine Armstrong, Kris Couch, Debbie Tillman, Kathy Gammill, Robyn Miller, Patricia Gentch, Vicki McDonald and Cheryl Willis were coached through a successful season by Mrs. Judee Romero and Ms. Sheryl Weatherton. The team was assisted by managers, Kay Hampton and Becky Furrey.

Coconino Office Faculty

When asked what her job was, Mrs. Garduno replied, "I'm too busy to answer." From other sources we concluded she is Coconino's receptionist and Mr. Fox's secretary. Mr. Wolfe is Coconino's Vice-Principal and loyalist fan. Though his job is working with Coconino's students, he goes out of his way to participate in their activities. Ms. Williams keeps attendance for all of Coconino's students. She is also Mr. Wolfe's secretary and thus her biggest job is keeping up with him. Mr. Petersen heads the school as Principal. He works with the teachers to make their jobs easier. He is a sponsor at all of Coconino's dances and at many other extra-curricular activities. Ms. Nelson keeps all of Coconino's money in order. But, she has another big job, being Mr. Petersen's secretary. Coconino has a great Office staff. They really care how the student's feel.

A flutter of activity is always to be found,
when someone steps in,
to take a look around.

1. Ms. Nelson is a honey, and does her job so well,
keeping everyone's money
in line just swell.
2. Mr. Wolfe
the man in glasses, hopes very much
that everyone passes.
4. Our principal is grand and is always ready to lend a helping hand.
5. Our loving secretary, will always find the time, to listen as Mr. Canterbury tell what's on his mind.
6. Ms. Williams though hidden in the back, is someone very special knowing every fact.

America has failed and failed again in her efforts to create a free society. Yet the thing that impresses me the most about America today is her willingness to return to that lost fight. We may never stop calling ourselves a democracy, the Romans after all called themselves a free republic under Nero. But the time may soon be at hand when we must either create the reality or lose our chance to create it.

Business Dept. Offers Variety

Business classes ranged from Typing I to Record Keeping. They also had courses which included Bookkeeping, Business Law, Shorthand I, Shorthand II, Vocational Office Procedures.

A new elective course was added to the class list, Machine Shorthand. A course in Machine Shorthand is designed to provide the student with sufficient skill in one year to enable him to enter an initial stenographic position.

We had four teachers for the Business section. In picture number one we have Mrs. Ingols, picture number two Mr. Olson, picture number four Mrs. Haver and picture six Mr. Gomez.

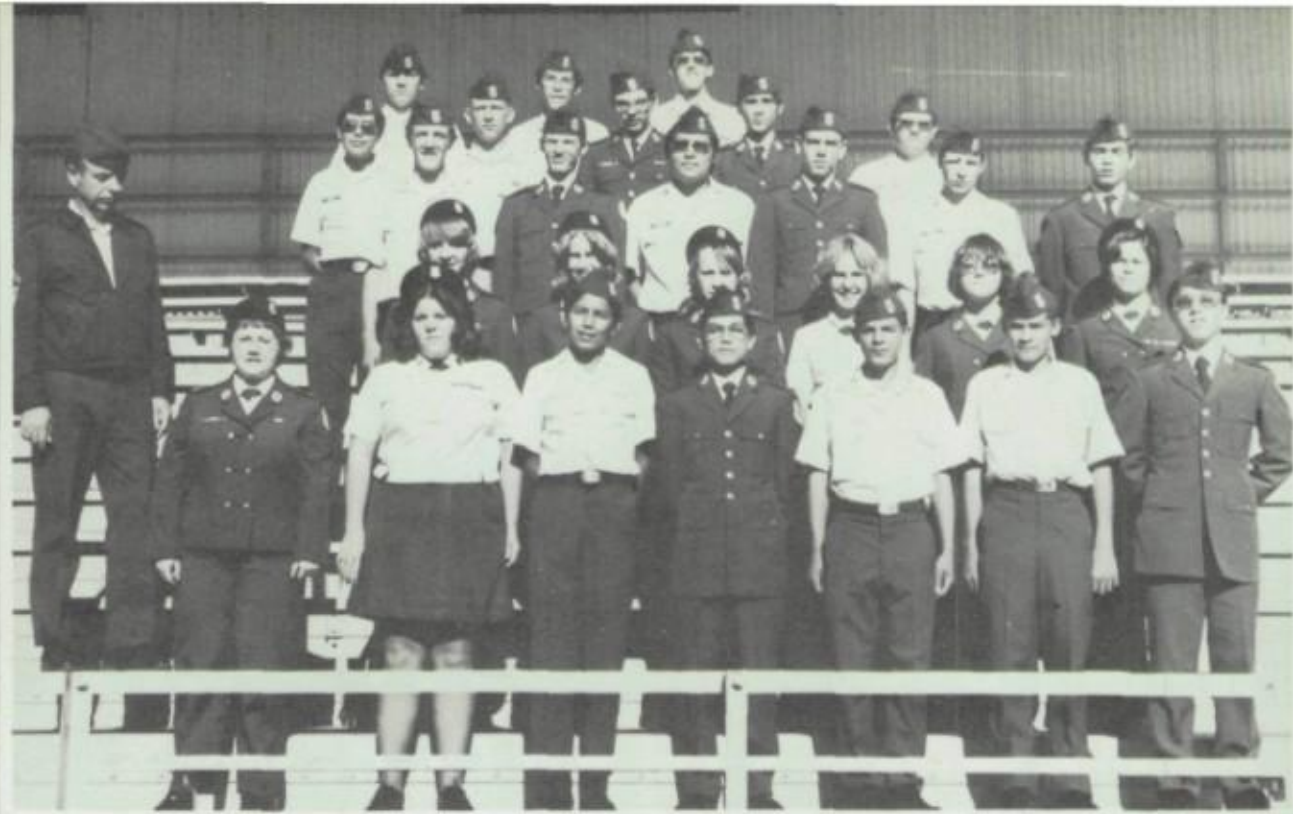

A.F.J.R.O.T.C.

The Jr. R.O.T.C. was very active in the 1976-77 school year. They did several concessions, paper drives and car washes to raise money for their military banquet.

At every home football and basketball game you saw a color guard. They went on field trips to Luke and Williams AFB.

It was also the first year for the drill team, who performed at football and basketball half times at C.H.S. and F.H.S. They were in competition at A.S.U. and Maryvale High School.

Hiking Club

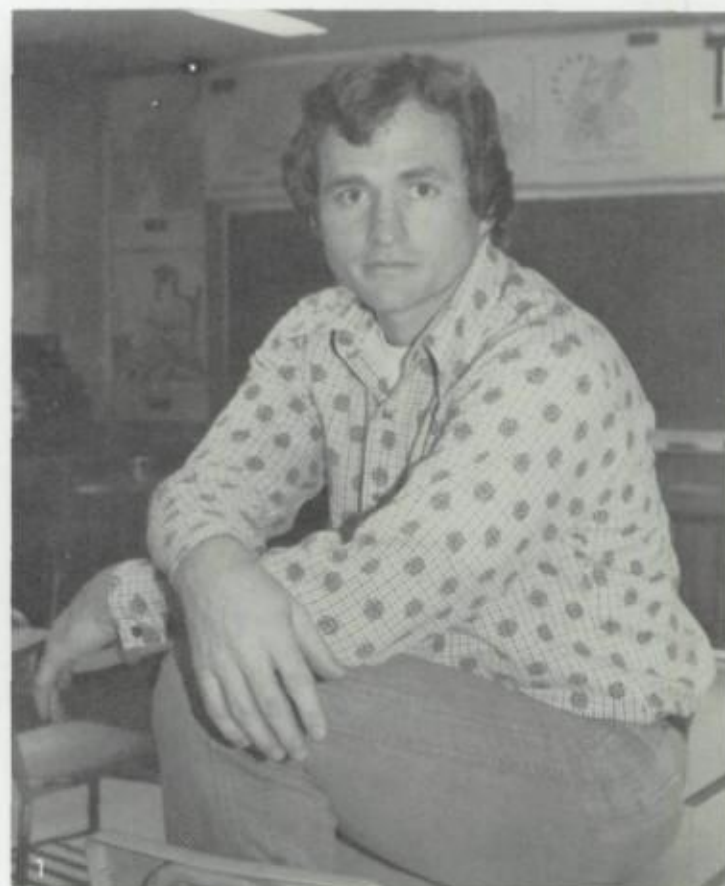

Some people got together and decided hiking would be a great way to spend their spare time, so we find in the year 1976-77 a hiking club at C.H.S. They went on hikes to the Peaks, West Fork, Sycamore Canyon, and Havasupi. They also went cross country skiing at Camp Colton.

Resources

These programs are designed to give students individualized instruction, as opposed to large group instruction, in academic areas. Emphasis is placed on self-motivation, cooperation, and job employment skills. Students have the opportunity to gain knowledge in these areas, as well as to work toward improving their academic skills.

77 Reflections has a new look this year. It was put in "Season" categories, with ads going throughout the entire book. The season approach was a great help so the Spring activities could get better coverage.

The annual was put together by the students in the class who worked diligently and still found time to walk the halls and stop in at Der WienerSchnitzel occasionally.

Mr. Wells was always there to give the students a good laugh with one of his jokes or his last resort, his face. Despite all the joking around the annual was on time. The class had a great time putting it together and they hope you enjoy looking and reading in it.

To Represent and Lead—Name of the Game for Reps

A strong commitment to represent and lead the students of CHS to a successful year was the major goal of the Student Council. Many activities were accomplished through their leadership. Members began their year with registration and the organization and preparation of the Get Acquainted Dance. The Council was also involved in the North Central Evaluation and organizing community service projects such as the canned food drive and distribution of Christmas stockings to patients at the hospital. The hard work and commitment of the members proved to be appreciated by the student body through the students involvement in activities and their positive attitude.

Student Congress

For the second year in a row, we have had a Student Council AND a Student Congress. The Council consists of the Student body officers: Doug Hatch, Tammy Garver, Peggy Liggitt, Vera Montoya and Debbie Cazares; the Class officers: Seniors-David Caylor, Bev Williams, Pete Wong, Yvonne Sedillo, Terry Robinson, Lorenzo Medina, Juniors-Barbara Lescoe, John Utley, P.D. Caylor, Robyn Jenkins, Connie Selph, Brad Kerby, Sophomores-Rick Deleon, Chris Flores, Bill Newton, Jeff Hunt, Kerri Aguinaga, Pam Flick; and the Historian, Michelle Liebe. The Historian was just added for this year-she will put the scrapbook together which will contain events of the year.

The Congress consists of the Council, home room reps, and club representatives. This year there were approximately 80 students in the Congress. They planned such activities as Homecoming, Christmas stockings for the hospital patients and school clean-up. They also assisted with the North Central Evaluation.

The Congress was sub-divided into committees to plan events and to promote student enthusiasm. An outstanding one, was the Student of the Week Committee. This committee worked to congratulate outstanding students, in spirit, service and citizenship. Clues were given in the announcements each day and the student was revealed on Friday.

The Congress worked in the bookstore and sponsored many dances. They had their ups and downs, but overall the Congress had a very successful year.
